

Ireland Gender Pay Gap Report

November 2025

Introduction

- The Gender Pay Gap Information Act 2021 introduced the legislative basis for gender pay gap reporting in Ireland. The Act requires organizations to report on hourly gender pay gap across a range of metrics included in this report. Organizations with greater than 50 employees are required to report starting in 2025.
- ERS has elected to utilize a 12-month reporting period of June 1, 2024 to May 31, 2025. The data will include employees effective June 1, 2025.
- We are committed to “pay equity”, working towards equal pay for equal roles across the organisation, regardless of gender.
- ERS is committed to our pay equity commitment of paying employees equitably for performing similar levels of work. The basis for this commitment is ERS’ robust salary structure and pay-for-performance framework.
- The gender pay gap calculations are the difference between compensation of male and female at an organizational level and does not adjust for role, performance, years of experience or seniority and therefore is not the same as equal pay.

Gender Pay Results

*This chart shows the employee distribution of 55 employee. Female employee representation is 42%, while male representation is 58%.

Data Commentary

- All employees have the same accessibility to benefits-in-kind and eligibility for a bonus plan.
- Our analysis of the data shows the primary reason for the gender pay gap is due to female talent being under-represented within our organization, particularly at more senior job levels.
 - This disparity is also the main contributing factor to the large gap in the hourly remuneration and bonus statistics.
- While the data reveals significant gender pay gaps, particularly when analyzing the mean statistic, it is important to keep a couple considerations in mind:
 - Our market data indicates that many of the roles found within ERS, especially in the higher graded technical roles tend to lean male-dominant from an industry perspective.
 - ERS recently saw the departure of a key female leader for the company which impacted the data significantly when you consider the overall ERS headcount.
 - This analysis is not necessarily indicative of comparing roles evaluated at the same level within the organization.
- ERS' hourly remuneration and bonus median data is considerably closer to the 2024 Ireland aggregate median data of 8.10% and 11.90%, respectively.

Equity Efforts

Creating a culture of inclusivity and belonging is essential to ERS culture and operations. We have highlighted programming and efforts that display our commitment to this initiative.

Inclusive Talent Acquisition Practices

- Gender-Neutral Job Descriptions
 - We actively use inclusive, gender-neutral language in job postings.
 - This encourages a broader and more diverse pool of applicants to consider opportunities at ERS.
- Diverse Candidate Panels
 - We maintain a diverse slate of candidates for all vacancies.
 - This practice supports equitable hiring and reflects our commitment to representation.
- Focus on Female Representation
 - We continue to prioritize increasing female representation in leadership and technical roles.
 - These efforts are aligned with business needs and our long-term inclusion strategy.
- Standardized Interviewing
 - ERS is committed to using consistent, structured interview questions across a variety of roles.
 - This approach helps reduce bias and ensures a fair evaluation process for all candidates.

Equity Efforts

Organizational Development

- IDEA Programming & THRIVE Committee
 - We are committed to fostering a culture of wellbeing, inclusion, diversity, equity, accessibility, and belonging. We want everyone to feel safe, valued, respected, and empowered to reach their full potential while staying true to themselves.
 - As part of this initiative, we have struck up an employee lead internal committee from all entities and levels within the organization to help drive company-wide initiatives and foster a connected supportive community.
- ISC/ERS conducts semi-annual performance reviews and annual compensation reviews focused on internal equity - equal pay for equal levels of work.
- We have achieved the Great Place to Work certification for a second year in a row. This certification recognizes employers who create an outstanding employee experience and an amazing workplace culture.
- We regularly canvas our employee population through employee engagement surveys. We then take this feedback to find ways to enhance the employee experience through different programming and offerings.
- ERS' parent company ISC has earned the Globe & Mail 2025 Women Lead Here Benchmark for 6th consecutive years.
